

Announcing:

the Second Annual SLCC Chapbook Competition

2011 Genre: Nonfiction/essay

SLCC students are invited to submit nonfiction or essay manuscripts of 4,000-12,000 words by November 21. Submissions can be one or more pieces of nonfiction or essays, within the word limit.

Prize: publication by the Publication Center; 25 copies (to the winning writer); and a $100 honorarium. Finalists may also choose to work with Publication Studies students to produce a limited run of ten (10) copies of their manuscripts.

Eligibility: any current student at SLCC may submit a manuscript. The work must be the original work of the writer, and must not have been previously published.

The chapbook will be printed in a run of 250 copies; it will be circulated on campus and placed in local bookstores. The publication of the chapbook will be widely publicized at SLCC and beyond.

To submit: e-mail manuscript to slccpubcenter@gmail.com in the following format:

- ☑ Double-spaced and paginated
- ☑ PDF format
- ☑ Separate title page with the following information: Name of writer; e-mail address; street address; phone number; title of manuscript and word count.
- ☑ Besides the title page, the writer's name must not appear on the manuscript.

If you have questions about the competition, please contact Lisa Bickmore at lisa.bickmore@slcc.edu, or call at 801.957.4686.
