

12th annual

SLCC Chapbook Contest

genre: poetry

SLCC students are invited to submit poetry manuscripts of 2,000-5,000 words (15-20 poems) by Monday, Nov 29, 2021.

Prizes:

WINNER: $150 honorarium plus the opportunity to work with Publication Studies students to edit, design and publish an edition of original chapbooks from your manuscript.

FINALISTS: The opportunity to work with Publication Studies students to edit, design and publish an edition of original chapbooks from your manuscript.

Eligibility:

Any current student at SLCC may submit a manuscript. The work must be the original work of the writer, and it must not have been previously published (although individual poems may have been published in magazines or journals).

Details:

The winning manuscript and finalist chapbooks will be published in echapbook format and distributed in the community. The winner and finalists will be celebrated at a gala Chapbook Launch and Public Reading virtually or in person, dependent on current gathering recommendations.

To submit:

Send your manuscript to charlotte.howe@slcc.edu in this format:

- PDF format, paginated, 12 pt. Times New Roman font (or similar)
- Separate title page with name of writer, e-mail address, street address, phone number, title of manuscript, and word count.
- Your name must not appear on the manuscript anywhere but on the title page.
